RE: US v. Jenkins
Transfer of file

Dear Judge Suddaby,

As promised in my correspondence of June 4, 2013, attached are receipts received from the Cayuga County Jail which memorialize my delivery of the file in the above referenced matter. Please note that I was not present when the file was placed in the "personal property" of Mr. Jenkins.

Very truly yours,

Jeffrey R. Parry

Cc: Joseph Jenkins

To: Jeffrey R. Parry, Esq.

From: Joseph Jenkins

Today, 06/04/2013 Sgt. Gleason gave me my legal files which formerly had been in the possession Attorney Jeffery R. Parry.

Without having viewed these records that were just presented to me I have requested that these records be placed in my personal property here at the Cayuga County Jail. I would like to not be in physical possession of them until I have obtained the services of a new attorney or I choose to sign these items out to my designee.

Joseph Jenkins

MEMORANDUM

TO: Mr. Jeffrey R. Parry, Esq.

FROM: Sergeant John Gleason

DATE: 06/04/2013

RE: Joseph Jenkins' Legal Documents

---

Mr. Parry, today 06/04/2013 inmate Joseph Jenkins was given the legal documents that were delivered to the Cayuga County P.S.B. by you on Friday 05/31/2013.

At that time inmate Jenkins was advised that the thumb drive and CD would be placed in his personal property as he would not be allowed to possess those items in his cell.
